THE GLORY OF GOD—Psalm 1, 23.

2. Can God be glorified by those who have no cause to do so?

3. Has he foreordained some sons to endless misery, or has he created them with a distinct fore-awful fate, what cause have they to praise him?

4. Will God place any of his creatures in a condition where he does not God's glory consist in his goodness and in his power to save the uttermost?

5. Is it not he who sent his Son to us?

6. Does he not call us to the highest require-ment of all mankind?

7. Is it not that the glory of the Lord shall be revealed in the earth? See Ps. 102, 15.

8. Is it true that "every tongue shall confess that Jesus Christ is Lord to the glory of God the Father?" Phil. 2, 11.

9. Is it not true that God shall be "all in all?" 1 Cor. 8, 6.

10. At the third page of the "Bible" we find, "He who is not glorified by those sent to us, has no right to glory."

11. Does he not call us to the highest require-ment of all mankind?

12. Is it not that the glory of the Lord shall be revealed in the earth?

13. Is it not true that "every tongue shall confess that Jesus Christ is Lord to the glory of God the Father?" Phil. 2, 11.
